REFERENCE.

In the G.O.first cited above, the Government have fixed the age-limit for recruitment by transfer from the Madras Commercial Taxes Subordinate Services (D.C.T.Os) as 45 years for inclusion in the approved list of C.T.Os. The Government have now passed orders in the G.O.second cited above that the age-limit for recruitment by transfer to the Madras Provincial Commercial Taxes Services as C.T.O., will be 47 instead of 45 for inclusion in the approved list.

2. The Board submits that recruitment by transfer to the Madras Commercial Taxes Service is not merely confined to D.C.T.Os. Items 1 and 4 in the G.O. second cited above are also eligible for inclusion in the category of C.T.Os., by transfer. But no age limit has been fixed for recruitment by transfer from the Madras Civil Service (Executive Branch) or from the Madras Registration Service or from the Madras Excise Service to the Madras Commercial Taxes Service. If the same age limit fixed in the G.O. second cited above is followed in the case of a District Registrar or an Excise Inspector for transfer as a C.T.O. there will be much disparity in age between them and those transferred from D.C.T.Os. A District Registrar thus transferred will be advanced in age and ripe for retirement. Similarly is the case of an Excise Inspector. If the same age-limit fixed for their promotions in their own department is also fixed for their transfers as C.T.Os., the Commercial taxes Department cannot expect much good work from these people at the age of 53 and 52. As they come from different departments they will have barrely enough time to acquaint themselves with the Commercial Taxes work in the new environments and they will have to retire before becoming useful to the department. The Board, therefore, submits that if these transfers are to prove any useful purpose, the age-limit in their cases also may be prescribed at 47 years as in the case of transfers from the D.C.T.Os. The Board also considers that the age-limit for transfers from other departments to the Commercial Taxes Department should be expressly stated in the G.O second cited above as shown below:

NAME OF SERVICE	POST.	AGE-LIMIT.
8(a)Madras Commercial Taxes Service	Commercial Tax Officers	The age-limit will be 47 years instead of 45 years for inclusion in the approved list.
(b) Madras Registration Service.	-do-	-do-
(c) Madras Excise Service	-do-	-do-

Contd...

If the age-limit suggested above is prescribed, it will avoid all complications and enable the C.T. Department to get the persons of proper age to fill up 16 2/3% allotted for recruitment as C.T.Os., by transfers from other departments mentioned above. The Board, therefore, requests that the Government may be pleased to issue necessary amendments to the Commercial Taxes Provincial Service Rules, as suggested above.
